

EXPO
216

a gallerium

CURRENT THEME DEATH & DYING

FOURTH FRIDAY JAN 26, 6-9PM

JAN 2018

BITES BY WHOLE FOODS

Enjoy hors d'oeuvres, vegan crab cakes, and mini desserts with the evening's entertainment.

MUSIC BY CRYSTAL BRIGHT

Singer/songwriter and multi-instrumentalist, Bright has an eclectic, haunting, yet world-folk sound, dubbed "kaleidophrenic cabaret."

NEW EXHIBITS

HAIRWORK MEMENTO JEWELRY

Early American mourning pieces made from intricately woven human hair: showcasing brooches, bracelets, buttons, and a fob.

FUNERAL CARE IN AMERICA

From Civil War embalming to today's "green" burials: featuring a banana leaf casket, cardboard coffin, and paper mache sea urns.

REVISITED

THOUGHTS IN PASSING

Copies of Claudia Bicen's pencil portraits of hospice patients: featuring embedded words representing their end-of-life reflections.

UPCOMING EVENTS

ARTS IN WILMINGTON AWARDS

JANUARY 20, 6-9 PM
(SAT)

AIW celebrates the local art community with an evening of awards. Tickets on sale at www.ArtsinWilmington.com.

BLANK CANVAS AWARENESS ART

FEBRUARY 3, 2-3:30 PM
(SAT)

Donna Gargett speaks to the benefit of art for those struggling with dyslexia, ADHD, and ADD. The workshop will include a viewing of BCAA's collection, an open auction, and BCAA awards. Free and open to all ages.

4TH ANNUAL FICTION-TO-FASHION SHOW

MARCH 1, 7 PM
(THUR)

Expo 216 hosts the New Hanover County Library as students aged 13-18 strut the runway in designs made from discarded library materials. Free and unticketed.

YOGA WITH LORRIE WAGNER 9-10:30 AM (every TUE, THUR, SAT) All levels, $10

ART. FASHION, & SOCIAL ACTION

216 N. FRONT STREET

WEDNESDAY-SUNDAY • 12-6PM

www.Expo216.com

