

EXPO
216

CURRENT THEME

DEATH & DYING

Notary Night

FOURTH FRIDAY FEB 23, 6-9PM

FEBRUARY 2018

NOTARY NIGHT

Get your Advance Directive notarized. Bring legal ID. Courtesy of Lower Cape Fear Hospice.

LIVE MUSIC

Ethereal vibes by harpists Julie Rehder and Carole Green.

REFRESHMENTS Hot mulled wine and hors d'oeuvres.

NEW EXHIBITS

BCAA STUDENT ART

Blank Canvas Awareness Art brings awareness to the one in five students with language-based learning disabilities.

"I WILL LIVE ON"

View five sculptures created from wood, bronze, and iron by Kristen Crouch in tribute to her brother who passed in 2006.

ON-GOING EXHIBITS

THOUGHTS IN PASSING. Graphic pencil drawings of hospice patients by Artist Claudia Bicen. Hear their profound reflections.

HAIRWORK. In-house display of jewelry made with human hair. Includes how-to instructions.

WORD AND FORM. Micrographic mural and companion pieces by Artist Chad Starling. And we do mean micro.

AFRICAN FUNERARY ART. Authentic and awesome artifacts from the extensive collection of Charles Jones.

UPCOMING EVENTS

4TH ANNUAL FICTION-TO-FASHION SHOW

7 PM MARCH 1 (THUR)

Expo 216 hosts the New Hanover County Library as students aged 13-18 strut the runway in designs made from discarded library materials. Free and unticketed.

YOGA WITH LORRIE WAGNER

9-10:30 AM (every TUE, THUR, SAT) All levels, $10.

ART. FASHION.  SOCIAL ACTION

216 N. FRONT STREET

WEDNESDAY-SUNDAY • 12-6PM

www.Expo216.com