

EXPO 216 a gallerium

FOURTH FRIDAY GALLERY NIGHT JANUARY 27TH, 6-9PM

GRATITUDE CELEBRATION

Join us in a tribute of gratitude to the over 13,000 visitors who passed through our doors since our opening!

LIVE MUSIC

AL DIMARCO'S BIG FAT ACCORDIAN BAND

Enjoy the spirited sounds of New Orleans while listening to the debut of DiMarco's new band. Band members are Benny Hill and Paul Lewis on saxophones, David Toma at drums, and the talented Al DiMarco singing, playing accordion, and performing on keyboards.

A relative newcomer to the Wilmington music scene, Al DiMarco moved into the area after seven years living and performing in Japan. Here in Wilmington you can catch Al playing in different musical settings as a solo performer; with saxophonist Benny Hill; and as a member of The Randy McQuay Trio.

ARTIST FEATURE

FITZI HUBER: AT THE EDGE

Join us as we host a new exhibition by featured artist Fritzi Huber. Fritzi is a local artist with Acme Art Studios and has been a papermaker for more than 35 years. For this exhibition she has sought inspiration at the water's edge. Her work offers a glimpse into the treasures found in the tideline.

Our live music feature is an original folk-blues blend by Upstarts and Rogues. Members are Jude Eden - voice and cello, and Jeff Sanchez - voice, guitar, and percussion.
